

TERMS & CONDITIONS

Website: bhu-taraastro.com

Effective date: [Insert date before publication]

Please read these Terms & Conditions before using the website or booking a consultation. By accessing the website, booking a reading or making a payment, you agree to these Terms, subject to applicable law.

1. About Bhu Tara Astro and Scope of Services

Bhu Tara Astro provides personalised Vedic astrology consultations based on traditional Parashara principles. The services currently described on the website include Birth Chart (Kundli) Reading, Career & Business Astrology, Marriage & Compatibility (Kundli Milan), Health & Wellness Astrology, Auspicious Timing (Muhurat), Horary Astrology (Prashna Kundali), astrology bundles and packages, and written reports where offered.

Consultation formats, session length, deliverables, fees and any included follow-up support are those specifically stated on the website or presented to you at the time of booking. A feature is included only when it is expressly listed for the service or package you purchase.

2. Eligibility and Use by Minors

To book and pay for a service, you must be legally capable of entering into a contract under applicable Indian law. If you are under 18, a parent or legal guardian must make or expressly approve the booking and payment on your behalf.

3. Information You Provide

Astrological readings may depend on details you provide, such as your name, date of birth, time of birth, place of birth, contact details and the questions you wish to discuss. You are responsible for providing information that is accurate and complete. Inaccurate, incomplete or approximate information may affect the scope or interpretation of a reading.

4. Booking, Fees and Payment

Bookings are subject to availability and confirmation. The applicable fee, session duration, service scope and deliverables will be as shown on the website or communicated before payment. Any displayed promotional price applies only under the conditions stated when the booking is made.

Unless otherwise stated in writing, payment must be completed before the consultation or delivery of the service. Applicable taxes, if any, will be charged in accordance with law. Bhu Tara Astro may update its prices or service descriptions; changes will not alter a booking already confirmed at an agreed price.

5. Cancellation, Rescheduling and Missed Appointments

Please review the service details and your schedule before paying. Unless applicable law requires otherwise or a different written policy is expressly provided for your booking, payments are non-refundable once the booking is confirmed.

Any request to reschedule must be made in advance and is subject to availability and confirmation. The number of permitted reschedules, notice period and any other conditions will be those communicated for the particular service. If you do not attend or join at the agreed time, the appointment may be treated as used.

If Bhu Tara Astro must cancel or postpone a confirmed appointment, you will be offered a reasonable alternative date or arrangement. Any refund or other remedy required by applicable law will remain available.

6. How Consultations Are Delivered

The website describes one-to-one video consultations, including sessions conducted through Zoom, and email delivery of a summary after a session for relevant services. The exact platform, appointment details, delivery timeline and included materials will be communicated for your booking.

Reports, session recordings, email support, WhatsApp support, priority booking and other additional features are included only if explicitly stated in the description of the package purchased. Do not assume that a feature shown for one package is included in another.

7. Nature of Astrology and No Guarantee

Astrology is a traditional, belief-based practice. Interpretations, predictions, timing guidance and suggested remedies reflect the astrologer's understanding of traditional methods and are provided for personal guidance and reflection. They are not scientifically established guarantees of future events or outcomes.

No particular result is promised in relation to career, business, relationships, marriage, health, education, finances or any other area. Individual experiences may differ, and your choices, efforts and circumstances remain important.

8. No Substitute for Professional Advice

Astrological consultations are not medical, mental-health, legal, financial, investment or other regulated professional advice. Do not delay or discontinue medical treatment, disregard advice from a qualified professional, or make major legal, health or financial decisions solely on the basis of an astrological reading. Seek advice from an appropriately qualified professional where needed.

Any mantras, gemstone suggestions, charitable giving (daan), fasting, rituals or daily practices discussed in a consultation are traditional suggestions only. They are not represented as diagnosing, curing, treating or preventing a disease, or as guaranteeing miraculous or supernatural results.

9. Privacy and Confidentiality

Information you provide for a booking or consultation, including birth details and questions, will be used to arrange and deliver the requested service, communicate with you, and handle relevant enquiries or support. Bhu Tara Astro will take reasonable steps to treat such information confidentially and will not sell your personal information.

Information may be disclosed where required by applicable law or a lawful request from a competent authority. Please avoid sending information that is not necessary for your consultation. Any additional privacy notice published on the website should be read together with these Terms.

10. Intellectual Property and Permitted Use

Website text, branding, graphics, and other materials are owned by Bhu Tara Astro or used with permission, unless otherwise indicated. You may access them for personal, non-commercial use. You must not copy, reproduce, publish, distribute, sell or commercially exploit website content or personalised reports without prior written permission, except where permitted by law.

11. Acceptable Use and Website Availability

You must not misuse the website, attempt unauthorised access, interfere with its operation, submit knowingly false information, upload malicious code, or use the website or its content unlawfully or misleadingly.

The website and its content are provided on an "as available" basis. We do not guarantee uninterrupted or error-free access. Temporary downtime, technical issues or third-party platform failures may affect access to the website or an online session; where this affects a confirmed appointment, please contact us to discuss an appropriate arrangement.

12. Third-Party Platforms and Links

Bookings, video consultations, email communications or other parts of a service may rely on third-party platforms. Their terms, availability and privacy practices are controlled by those providers. Bhu Tara Astro is not responsible for third-party websites or services to the extent permitted by law.

13. Limitation of Liability

To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, Bhu Tara Astro will not be liable for indirect or consequential loss arising from use of the website or reliance on an astrological interpretation. Nothing in these Terms excludes or limits liability that cannot lawfully be excluded or limited. Where liability relating to a paid service may lawfully be limited, any limitation will be applied only to the extent permitted by applicable law.

14. Changes to These Terms

These Terms may be updated from time to time. The latest version will be published on the website with an updated effective date. The version applicable to a booking will be read subject to applicable law and any specific written terms agreed for that booking.

15. Governing Law and Disputes

These Terms are governed by the laws of India. The parties will endeavour to resolve any concern or dispute through good-faith communication. If a dispute cannot be resolved informally, it will be handled by a court of competent jurisdiction in accordance with applicable Indian law.
